Dear Ika,

Thanks for your reply. Okay, maybe the format will be changed. If so, I will send you a new format of International Journal of Applied Pharmaceutics (Int J App Pharm) in the late period.

Best regards,

Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from ICPPS 2019! Based on the previous review procedure, congratulate that your paper has passed the peer reviewing procedure of the conference committee. After communication with the publishing press, your paper can be recommended to be published in AJPCR Journal (Online ISSN: 2455-3891 | Print ISSN: 0974-2441) (<https://innovareacademics.in/journals/index.php/ajpcr>)

or International Journal of Applied Pharmaceutics (Int J App Pharm)
(<https://innovareacademics.in/journals/index.php/ijap>).

Of course, based on the review procedure requirements, the paper must past the review of journal editor board also and maybe you need to revise the final paper according to the review result later. Can you kindly tell me your option of publication before March 18, 2019? Then we can deal with it accordingly.

Option A: AJPCR

Option B: Int J App Pharm

Dear Ika,

Glad to receive your reply. You do not need to pay more fees if you choose to publish your paper in Int J App Pharm. The extra publication fee of Int J App Pharm is the same with the extra publication fee of AJPCR 200USD.

We got the information that AJPCR will no longer be indexed by Scopus. Therefore, we negotiated with the publishing house. International Journal of Applied Pharmaceutics (Int J App Pharm) is a journal that can be indexed by Scopus. So I'd like to confirm your choice again. Because once we submit your choice, it will be too late to change it.
