PREFACE

On behalf of the organizers and the committees, we proudly welcome everyone to International Seminar on English Language Teaching (ISELT) 2016.

This International Seminar is held as a part of community service of English Education Program of Sultan Ageng Tirtayasa University. It is aimed to enrich and enliven academic atmosphere in Banten Province in particular and Indonesia in general and provide English Language Teaching (ELT) communities: academicians, teachers, students, and lecturers of English or English Education opportunities to share their research and insight. Moreover, it is expected to be a forum to build academic networking for the participants.

The theme of the Seminar is New Streams and Challenges in EFL Teaching and Learning. In the contribution to this theme, 220 participants which came from various backgrounds in ELT and different regions of Indonesia join this Seminar. 62 participants are paper presenters and 159 are regular participants. In the parallel session they present wide and various topics in the scope of English Language Teaching and Learning.

Your presence at this conference is very helpful and significant to develop sustainable forum that contributes influentially to the growth and quality of English language teaching and learning in Banten province in particular, and Indonesia in general. Therefore, we encourage you and your colleagues to submit an abstract for ISELT 2017.

Lastly, we hope that you enjoy the seminar.
